HAP is pleased to recognize the following winning submissions for poster presentations at HAP’s 2017 Patient Safety & Quality Symposium:

“The Wellspan Ephrata Community Hospital Sepsis Journey”
Wellspan Ephrata Community Hospital: Erica Martin, ADN/BA-Business/MSN, Mark Seidel, MSN Education, Kim Gross, BSN

“Providing a Safe Environment for the Committed Patient Outside the Psychiatric Unit”
Forbes Hospital: Beth Griffith, RN, BSN, NE-BC, Jane Thomas, RN, BSN, Kathy Sankovich, RN, BSN, MPM, BC-NE

“Use of MAGIC to reduce CLABSI”
Forbes Hospital: Lesley Rehak, MSN, RN, CCRN-CSC, Jill Direnzo, MSN, RN, CCRN, Ellen Bullock, RN, CRNI

“Internal Experts Collaborate to Reduce Critical Hypoglycemia, Improve Insulin Errors and Administration Timing”
UPMC Passavant: Kelley Szlec, MSN, Linda Nicolaus, BS, Lisa Cannon, RN, BSN

“Combining Forces: Redesigning the Obstetrical Rapid Response Team”
Thomas Jefferson University Hospital: Deborah Cruz, RN, MSN, CRNP, Meseret Meheretie, RN, BSN, CCRN, John Cunningham, RN, BSN, PHRN, Jaclyn Bloom

“What you Say Matters! Nurse Physician Collaboration”
UPMC Susquehanna: Katie Kleckner, MSN, BSN, PCCN

“Reducing 30-Day Readmissions in Acute Care Behavioral Health Setting”
PA Psychiatric Institute: Janis Seiders, RN, Theresa Terry-Williams, MBA, MA, BSN, RN-BC

“Non-pharmacological Measures to Assist with the Prevention of Delirium”
Riddle Hospital – Main Line Health: Susan Molitoris, BSN, CCRN, RN-BC, SCRN

“Empowering Caregiver Transition: Impact of Caregiver Training and Support Group Services”
Healthsouth Rehabilitation Hospital of Sewickley: Michelle McCann, OTD, OTR/L, CBIS, C/NDT

“Reducing MRSA Infections in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit”
Magee-Womens Hospital of UPMC: Barbara Hildebrand, RN, BSM, MBA

Please visit the displays to learn about these innovative projects!